These last couple of years have been quite amazing as we have sought our great God and Saviour, looking to him for wisdom on the way ahead.

Skye

We had a wonderful trip to Skye in May and would like to express our thanks to Ivor MacDonald, Margaret Duguid and all our friends in Staffin, Kilmaluig, and Uig. The trip was eventful from the outset as we had to drive the mini-bus 50 miles in second gear. We eventually hobbled into our Kilmaluig retreat and our friend Dina contacted a mechanic (Iain) who sorted the problem. No sooner was that done when I decided to show off my athleticism by vaulting a small wall. I inevitably fell and was in crutches for the next 2 months. A great thank you to our friends in Skye for food and shelter over the week.

Mothers and children

Our continuous contact with our families has been crucial over the years. Throughout the first three weeks of July we send a number of children to Auchenfyle Christian camp near Kilmalcolm. The children have a great time at the camp and we appreciate the input and witness of Gods people as they share the uniqueness of Christ with these young people.

Our annual trip to Loudon castle was a great encouragement. The sun was splitting the trees as twenty five mothers and children of all ages had a day to remember. Trusting the Lords great love and care would be seen as we seek to encourage our families with wholesome activities at these special times.

Christianity explored (starting on the 14th of September 10:30-1:00)

By the time you receive this letter our Christianity explored course should be underway. We would like to thank full time C.E. advocate Alex Bedford for taking the time to run the course for us. It is our intention to run a continuous 7 week version of the course. The street work will be starting shortly afterwards on Monday the 4th of October. Our gratitude goes out to a fine group of volunteers who meet with us every Monday evening to clean the church and pray in anticipation of the work starting again. We also hope to start a 12 step discipleship group on a Thursday. Further details of this will be posted on our website.

Barlinnie day care centre

Iain, John, and I have been greatly encouraged by the small group who meet every Friday to read his word. Some are believers; others show a healthy interest as we study the Gospels. We have just finished working through Marks gospel and are now on the early chapters of Luke.

Glasgow City Free Church

Our base in St Vincent Street has been tremendous for us. Our friends within the fellowship of Gods people have helped to bring a dignity to the work that we do, not least through the first class facilities we now work in. Thanks to everyone who have made this possible and a great thank you to all of the fellowships and individuals who support the work of Chanan Glasgow.

Launch

[We will be having an official launch of Chanan Glasgow at 7:30pm on the 29th of October in the Glasgow City Free Church. All are welcome. Check out our website for more information \[www.chananglasgow.org.uk\]\(http://www.chananglasgow.org.uk\)](#)

Pray

Pray for a part time office worker for Chanan.

Pray for Euan and John along with our patient volunteers as we prepare to go back on the street.

Pray for our trustees. George, Gary and Maggs and a big thank you for answered prayer as Maggs recovers from her operation.

Prayer meeting

We meet every Thursday at 11:30am to 12:30pm at Glasgow City Free Church 162 St Vincent lane; bell on left. Lunch is provided.

"Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way opened for us, the curtain that is his body, and since we have a great High Priest over the house of God, let us draw near to God with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold unswerving to the hope we profess, for He who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we can spur one another on towards love and good deeds. Let us not give up meeting together as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another all the more as you see the Day approaching." Hebrews 10:19-25

Yours in Christ

Hugh and all the team at Chanan.
